

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-16-100 What is the department's "preferred worker" program? The department's "preferred worker" program provides eligible employers with financial incentives to hire certified "preferred workers."

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-16-110 Who can be certified as a "preferred worker"? Workers can be certified as a "preferred worker" if they have an open claim for an industrial injury or occupational disease that:

(1) Prevents the worker from returning to work with the employer of record, and substantially impairs the likelihood of the worker's reemployment with a different employer; or

(2) Has resulted in payment of time-loss compensation benefits for a period of at least fourteen consecutive days, if the worker has a developmental disability as defined by RCW 71A.10.020.

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-16-115 How does a worker apply for "preferred worker" certification? Workers and employers may inquire about the "preferred worker" program by contacting the claim manager, vocational counselor, or the department's "preferred worker" section.

Workers who are unable to return to work with the employer of record must receive assistance applying for "preferred worker" certification from a registered vocational provider.

Exception: Workers with developmental disabilities, who will be reemployed by the employer of record, do not need to apply for "preferred worker" certification. Instead, the department will consider the worker's eligibility for certification after receiving the employer's Intent to Hire Preferred Worker form.

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-16-120 Who certifies industrially injured or ill workers as "preferred workers"? Only a department employee with authority to do so may certify a worker as a "preferred worker."

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-16-130 How long does a worker's "preferred worker" certification last? A worker's "preferred worker" certification lasts for thirty-six consecutive months, and cannot be extended. Exception: The department may interrupt the certification period if:

- (1) Medical documentation shows that the worker is unable to work or look for work, due to the industrial injury or occupational disease for which the "preferred worker" certification was granted; and
- (2) The worker's claim for the same injury or disease is still open.

When the worker is again able to work or look for work, the certification period will resume. The period of interruption does not count toward the thirty-six month total.

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-16-140 Which employers are eligible to benefit from the "preferred worker" program? Employers are eligible to benefit from the "preferred worker" program if:

- (1) They hire or reemploy a certified "preferred worker" with developmental disabilities as defined by RCW 71A.10.020; or
- (2) They were not the "preferred worker's" employer at the job of injury, and they subsequently hire a certified "preferred worker."

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-16-150 What benefits do eligible employers receive from the "preferred worker" program? (1) Eligible employers insured with the state fund who hire a certified "preferred worker":

(a) Do not pay accident fund and medical aid fund premiums for that worker during the "preferred worker" certification period; and

(b) Will not have the cost of any new claim filed by that worker charged to their experience rating, if the claim is for a new injury sustained or an occupational disease diagnosed during the "preferred worker" certification period.

(2) Eligible self-insured employers who hire a certified "preferred worker" will receive reimbursement from the second injury fund for all benefits paid on any new claim filed by that worker, if the claim is for a new injury sustained or an occupational disease diagnosed during the "preferred worker's" certification period.

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-16-160 What must an employer do to qualify for benefits when hiring a "preferred worker"? An employer must complete an Intent to Hire Preferred Worker form. The employer must return the completed form to the department within sixty days from the "preferred worker's" first day of:

(1) Employment, if the employer is a subsequent or new employer. In these situations, the employer must also provide the department a description of the job offered to the worker.

(2) Reemployment, if the employer is the employer of record and the worker has a developmental disability as defined by RCW 71A.10.020. In these situations, if the doctor has released the worker without restrictions and the worker is returning to the job of record, a job description is not needed.

NEW SECTION

WAC 296-16-170 Where may an employer obtain an Intent to Hire Preferred Worker form? Employers may obtain an Intent to Hire Preferred Worker form from the department's offices or website.
